

The Theme of My Song

$\text{♩} = 180$

D Em/D Vamp on Intro. D Em/D D Em/D

1. Your mer-cy in Je - sus ex - empts me from hell; Its
 2. Your mer-cy is more than a match for my heart, which -
 3. The door of Your mer - cy stands op - en all day, to
 4. Great fa - ther of mer - cies! Your good - ness I own, the

G D/F# Em A

glo - ries I'll sing, and its won - ders I'll tell; 'Twas won - ders to feel it's own hard - ness de - part; O'er - souls poor and need - y who knock by the way; Not co - ve - nant love of Your cru - ci - fied Son; All

D Em/D D Em/D

Je - sus in mer - cy, Who hung on the tree, and come by Your good - ness, pride falls to the ground, and one is re - ject - ed of all those who came, app - praise to the Spi - rit Whose whis - per div - ine seals

G D/F# A D o - pened the chan - nel of mer - cy for - me. (Chorus:) Your awe fills my soul at the mer - cy I've found.

 eal - ing my mer - cy in Je - sus' de - ar name.
 mer - cy, and par - don, a - nd right - eous - ness mine!

G D A7 D D/F#

mer - cy, my God, is the theme of my song, the joy of my heart, and the boast of - my tongue; Your free grace a - lone,

G D A G

D A7 Bm G D/F#

from the first to the - last, has won my af - fect - ions and

A7 D Em/D

bound my soul - fast.